

Potential Board Members

Claretta Witherspoon

Claretta Witherspoon is a Family Centered Care Coordinator with the University of NC at Greensboro. She has more than 15 years of advocacy for children struggling with mental illness and parenting classes for their parents. Claretta has demonstrated great skill in training and public speaking. She is nationally certified in Mental Health First Aid for Adults and Youth. Claretta has served as the local and regional president of Disciples Women's Ministries in NC and served on International Disciples Women's Ministries Executive Committee. She serves as the liaison for Mt. Pleasant Christian Church and the refugees worshipping with them and the Liberian community.

{North Carolina—SERF, 60s, Lay, Female, Black, Social Services}

Jess Kim

Jess Kim serves as the Managing Director at Disciples Seminary Foundation in Claremont, CA. She graduated from Chapman University in 2007 with a degree in English/journalism and is currently pursuing an M.Div. degree at Claremont School of Theology. She is an active leader in youth/young adult ministries and serves on the boards of NAPAD and the PSWR.

{California—WIRM, 30s, Lay, Female, Asian, Seminarian}