

Organization of African Instituted Churches (OAIC)
Daughters of Dignity and Destiny
Global Ministries
Project Budget for Week of Compassion

	USD
Mentor training sessions of ten mentors on community core values, dignity, and destiny
Participants communication mobile data bundles for Wi-Fi	$200
Each mentor will be expected to reach and to mentor ten girls on social and community values and self-dignity
Support for mentoring 20 girls each. Total of 200 girls in the program for three sessions each.	$2,000
Organize training sessions for 10-20 families on sustainable agriculture, economic independence, and entrepreneurship.	$1,000
Sustainable income generation and financial independence facilitation	$400
Provision of assorted seeds, chicks, and goats. Grants to each family. Each family will be expected to give back to the project through this activity.
One month old chicks (one male and one female chick per family)	$120
Goats (one male and one female goal per family)	$1,920
Assorted seeds for the establishment of kitchen gardens	$1,800
“Telling our stories” Identify and support young girls and mothers to tell their success stories by documenting their journey and sharing their stories
Purchase and distribute tablets to help the young girls and mothers to write their own success stories	$1,600
Issue certificates of achievements of girls and families	$40
Issue certificates of recognition to the mentors	$20
Community Facilitator – Support for the staff person who will be a reference person at the community-level-- providing direction, help in monitoring, modeling, and mentoring.	$900
Sub-Totals	$9,760
Administration, evaluation, office supplies as needed	$240
Totals	$10,000